Two local entertainers vie for Senior Superstar title

ELDERLY residents from Geebung and Zillmere will be amongst those to unleash their inner-stars during the Brisbane Senior Superstar grand final this Sunday.

Geebung resident Jim Ryan, 68, who is also a board member of the Geebung-Zillmere RSL, earned his spot by performing a rousing rendition of 'New York, New York'.

Zillmere resident Jim Hodgson, 76, also blew away the competition after he sang 'Try a Little Tenderness'.

Former Senior Superstar of 2009, and 2008 runner up, Darcy Turgeon will also perform as a guest star during the seven senior final.

The grand final will take place at the QPAC Concert Hall at South Bank from 1.30pm, with doors opening at 1.00pm.

There will be an interval and the show will conclude at 4.30pm.

Although tickets to the grand final are booked out, QPAC urges people to phone for late cancelations on 13 62 46.
